Central Intelligence Agency: Undergraduate Scholar Program	7/7	National	3.00	Full Cost of Attendance	12TH Undergraduate	Must be a high school Senior or college Freshman or Sophomore, and meet all requirements. Applicant must also plan to major in Computer Science, Economics, Electrical Engineering, Foreign Area Studies, or non-Romance Foreign Languages. Recipients must be available to work in metropolitan Washington, DC for at least 90 calendar days each summer while in college. Submit application online. The Undergraduate Scholar Program was developed, in part, to assist minority and disabled students, but application is open to all students who meet the requirements. The program offers unmatched experience. You'll complete work sessions during each summer break, increasing your knowledge and job responsibilities while assisting intelligence professionals and applying your academic skills. We believe in challenging our Scholars with meaningful work that relates to their college major. An IT major, for example, might be given increasingly complex projects involving sophisticated computer systems. An engineering major might help produce a piece of state-of-the-art equipment. A finance major could be involved in developing and analyzing budgets for a worldwide operation. A foreign language major might be instrumental in translating documents for US policymakers. As a final example, a human resource major could have the opportunity to develop and implement personnel policies and procedures. If you are part of the CIA's Undergraduate Scholar Program you will be given an annual salary; an optional benefits package that includes health, dental and vision insurance, life insurance, and retirement; and up to $18,000 per calendar year for tuition, mandatory fees, books, and supplies. You'll be required to work at an Agency facility in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area during summer breaks and to maintain full-time college status during the school year with a minimum cumulative 3.0/4.0 GPA. We will pay the cost of transportation between school and the Washington, D.C. area each summer and provide a housing allowance. Undergraduate scholarship participants are required to work for at least one 90-day session before graduation and be employed by the CIA after graduation for a period of 1.5 years for each year of paid scholarship.	https://www.cia.gov/careers/student-opportunities/undergraduate-scholarships.html
