

Join us for a check presentation to celebrate an $18,400 scholarship given to a DSF Scholar who attended Dora Moore ECE-8

WHAT: Otten Johnson, a leading commercial law firm in Colorado, has established a Named Scholarship with a commitment of $18,400 to support a graduate of Denver Public Schools, who attended Dora Moore, as part of their scholarship award from the Denver Scholarship Foundation.

Over the past ten years, the Denver Scholarship Foundation has been making college possible for DPS students, and on Tuesday, October 11, Otten Johnson, Denver Scholarship Foundation, Dora Moore students and educators alongside Councilman Wayne New and the Denver Public Schools Foundation will join together for a check presentation to celebrate the Otten Johnson Named Scholarship. DSF Scholar recipient Nicholas McCloskey will join to share personal testimony.

To date, the Denver Scholarship Foundation has provided 5,000 Scholars with $30 million in scholarships. In addition, nearly $300 million in other gift aid has been offered to DPS seniors through Denver Scholarship Foundation Future Centers and 73% of Denver Scholarship Foundation Scholars are succeeding in or have graduated from a postsecondary program.

Otten Johnson is dedicated to supporting students at Dora Moore. The Named Scholarship is an extension of a six year partnership which has included school supply drives, coat and hat drives, volunteer paint days and much more. Questions about the Dora Moore/Otten Johnson Partnership could be directed to Heather Baker at Otten Johnson, 303.575.7551 or hbaker@ottenjohnson.com.

About The Denver Scholarship Foundation

Denver Scholarship Foundation (DSF) is a 501(c)(3) public charity whose mission is to inspire and empower Denver Public Schools' students to achieve their postsecondary goals. A direct service provider, DSF provides college and financial aid advice to Denver students and families and offers a renewable, need-based scholarship to support scholars throughout their college careers. DSF also partners with colleges across Colorado to implement retention strategies that help Denver students complete their postsecondary education. DSF aims to create systemic change to prepare Denver's youth to succeed in today's evolving workforce.
